Departure of Rev Ross and Karen. - The Pastoral Relations Committee of the Bremer Brisbane Presbytery has decided I should finish my ministry at Ipswich UC on 31 August but has shown me the grace of allowing me to finish earlier if I wish.

I have decided to conclude my time with you on 31 July, taking 2 weeks accrued holiday before this. Therefore, my last Sunday with you will be 17 July. I leave you with no future placement confirmed for me. The decision to leave early was made with difficulty, but I have accepted that the decision of the congregation, of the 5 communities, the process and direction of the Church Council and leadership, and PRC has led me to feel that my call to minister with you no longer exists.

We say to the people of Ellenborough St, be assured that you have not worked for the Kingdom in vain. The seeds you have and are planting will bring a harvest. The outreach we see you have exercised now and in past years has been successful but with all things there are seasons. You have been faithful servants and have done all that has been asked of you. Well done, good and faithful servant. Karen and I have appreciated all that you have done for and with us. We could not have asked for a more supportive and faithful people. We have enjoyed our time with you and will remember you in our prayers.

Shalom, Ross and Karen Mackay
