Maundy Thursday service for Ipswich UC will take place at 7 pm 14 April, at Jacaranda St church. Using prayers and meditations, and leading into Holy Communion, the service will focus on the account of the Last Supper in John 13. Seven candles are lit during the service in response to seven actions, which are noted during the narrative. The lit candles offer a reminder of the presence of light even in the darkness of the eve of Good Friday. It's based on an Iona Community service crafted by Stephen Maunder in 2016.

DID YOU KNOW

The presence of the Holy Spirit

Jesus said that he would leave a counsellor to be with us. We call that counsellor the Holy Spirit. There was much hype about the activities of the Holy Spirit in the late 80s which has partly quietened now. The activity of the Holy Spirit has not changed over time but people's perspectives have. Tongues, healing, discernment, words of knowledge had a high priority then and these are attributed to the Holy Spirit but so is the quiet still voice within each of us that guides and directs our daily lives. When we seek to live by God's word and change our lives then that word is what we need to listen to. A person can only change themselves and has no control over the other and so the voice of the Holy Spirit is and becomes a very personal experience. Non-Christians may call it conscience or another name but we know it as the Holy Spirit. We receive the Holy Spirit at baptism developing the ability to hear and follow as we mature as Christians.
