From the Leadership Team

The decision made at the last meeting to support outreach activities of the congregation was clarified. It was agreed that all fundraising for the rest of 2022 go towards outreach activities of the congregation. This would exclude Christmas Bowl, Frontier Services BBQ and other usual Annual appeals.

It was reported from Church Council

- It was reported that a gift from the estate of Beryl Livingstone Johnston $5,000 was received.
- Anne England be accepted as a Church Council representative. A Youth & Young Adults PD and Worship Pastor PD for Glebe Rd were approved.
- That Church Council training on 10 September.
- $20,000 lost in first quarter
- Term deposit to be established for excess of about $200,000 of combined funds.
- Tree Lopping was approved at Glebe Rd as were Ellenborough St Fire extinguishers checking and replacement.
- As reported last week, supply at Jacaranda St not to continue due to a Lack of finance and testing the model of future ministry.

Property & Finance Committee

- The Property & finance Committee was dissolved in favour of 1 person becoming the Property Officer. The position created or reviewed are:
- Property Office - Peter H
- Child Safety Officer - Chris
