

We hope that you've had a great week and are looking forward to worshipping and fellowshiping this Sunday.

Please ensure that you scroll down to the bottom to access this week's notice sheet. In it you will find an important message from the church council.

Please also take time to watch this video from our Lead Minister and the chair of our church council.

Those people who join us for online worship are an important part of our church community. We would love to know who you are and how you access the livestream of our service. In the coming weeks we are going to be making changes to how people access the livestream of our service. So that we don't lose anyone in this process. If you access our livestream, can you please reply to this email and tell us who you are and how you access the service (ie do you use the link in this email, do you follow the link on our website, do you go straight to Youtube.)

There is no worship service at Ellenborough St this week. Please access this service from Rockhampton South Uniting Church.
